Rosemarie Dombrowski, Phoenix's first Poet Laureate, has been named the Humanities Scholar and Programming Creator/Facilitator by the Arizona Humanities. Starting in September 2026 through June 2027, this NEA grant funded program, The Arts Big Read, will explore The Essential Emily Dickinson through various events. Congrats to Rosemarie!

MARK YOUR CALENDAR NOW for the ASPS 60th Annual Conference: Past, Present & Future of Poetry in Mesa! Featuring an open mic reading on Friday evening, October 23rd, a most excellent conference on Saturday, October 24th, another open mic reading in the evening of October 24th, and a featured performance by Penny Peyser on Sunday afternoon. Details are coming and will be sent out soon!

Desert Nights Rising Stars Writers Conference on the ASU campus will be October 16 & 17, early registration discounts start June 1 through July 15. The theme this year is Pushing the Envelope: Risk & Vulnerability. Generative workshops for writers of all genres and fields will be offered. Get all the details and register here: <https://piper.asu.edu/conference>

Let me know of any Arizona poetry event missed or changed, any kind of poetry, or an event with a relationship to poetry, and share on the Arizona State Poetry Society's Facebook page, or copy to me! There's more poetry going on than I can capture here, there's always more!

Be  joyful, be  creative!

BE  GRATEFUL!

Metaphors be  with you!

Metaphors be with you!

A Summer Night

*I feel the breath of the summer night,
Aromatic fire:
The trees, the vines, the flowers are astir
With tender desire.*

*The white moths flutter about the lamp,
Enamoured with light;
And a thousand creates softly sing
A song to the night!*

*But I am alone, and how can I sing
Praises to thee?
Come, Night! unveil the beautiful soul
That waiteth for me.*

~ Elizabeth Drew Stoddard, 1823-1902 ~
